Biography

Tülin Haşlaman got her bachelor degree in 1984 from science education at Middle East Technical University. She worked as a mathematics teacher in different private schools between 1985 and 1999. She started to work in a public high school in 1999 and retired in 2005. During this period, she got her MA degree from Computer Education and Instructional Technology at Hacettepe University, in 2005. She also got her PhD from the same department in 2011. Her dissertation was about examining the effect of an online learning environment on teachers' and students' self-regulated learning skills. She got Ass.Prof. degree in 2019 from YÖK.

She worked as a mathematics teacher in Vocational Educational School at Hacettepe University between 2002-2005. Between 2010-2012, she taught both undergraduate and graduate level courses as a part time instructor at Graduate School of Education at Bilkent University.

Dr. Haslaman's research interests are self-regulated learning, teacher education, instructional design, teaching methods, instructional technologies, the integration of information and communication technologies in learning and teaching process, and distance education.

She has been working at TEDU since 2015.
